Absence of Time Lyrics

“Hellbound”

Oh, I feel it in the air
Determination
But I stop and stare
Hellbound
Going down
To the place I was before
Faster than a bullet train
I'm coming back for more

You keep me hanging on
When the whole world's gone
And done you wrong

A universal state of mind
In disrepair
The culmination of violence
And it's everywhere
Apocalyptic serenity
Distracted by design
Lost in eternity
Exchanged for a piece of mind

You keep me hanging on
When the whole world's gone
And done you wrong
Hanging on
The world we knew has come undone

If you could see behind these tired eyes
(If you could see behind these tired eyes)
Would you give it all away
(Give it all away)

You keep me hanging on
When the whole world's gone
And done you wrong

Hanging on
The world we knew has come undone

“Isolation”

Isolation

Deep sensation
Stories flood my mind
Traveling down a winding path
A hope I'll never find Termination
Holding back fears
Of a future never bright
Frozen
In a state of grace
Haunted by the night

You'll never see me
The deeper the wounds
Of love's jagged knife
Into the battle
Blind are the fools
Scars carried with pride

Where do we run from our fears
When angels and demons appear
I'll wait for you alone inside
This isolation deep within my mind

Opposition

Telling the tale of a story that's been told
Visions of angels fall from the sky
Charred and centuries old
Beasts of the field
The weapons we wield
May kill a mortal man
Down at the shore
Longing for more
As the wave kiss the sand

You'll never see me
The deeper the wounds
Of love's jagged knife
Into the battle

Blind are the fools
Scars carried with pride

Where do we run from our fears
When angels and demons appear
I'll wait for you alone inside
This isolation deep within my mind

I am love
I am hate
I am pain
I am fate
Your demon that awaits

Where do we run from our fears
When angels and demons appear
I'll wait for you to step inside
This isolation deep within my mind

I am love
I am hate
The pain that waits for you inside your mind
I'll wait for you
Nowhere to hide
Isolated till the end of time

“Not Gonna Run”

I'm ready to ride
I'm ready to fly
Ready to throw my hands up to the sky
Running like a speed train
No time for chance
Signs up ahead are telling me to turn back

United, we're divided
So how can we stand
Clock counting down to a picture-perfect ending

A new world on the rise
Lost in a disguise
I can't conceive
I want to believe

And I won't wait for the sun
I'm not gonna fight it
I'm not gonna run

Don't turn away
Face your fate
Don't trace your past
Don't feed the hate

Don't turn away
Don't turn away

And I won't wait for the sun
I'm not gonna fight it
I'm not gonna run

On the outside
Standing by
On the surface
Cold and dry
We wonder why

And I won't wait for the sun
I'm not gonna fight it
I'm not gonna run

And I won't wait for the sun
I'm not gonna fight it
I'm not gonna run

“My Darkest Hour”

So close
We walk along
The empty road
We chose
To run down
Waiting for a lifetime
Waiting for the world's fears
To feast upon
We hold on

One more chance
To take to take my flight
And I fall
One more chance
To save my life
From it all

I'm holding on
I'm holding on
My darkest hour
Has just begun

Up high

In the sky above
Soaring through the clouds
We glide without a sound
Seems like only moments
We forget
Seems like all the dreams
Have come and gone
We hold on

One more chance
To take to take my flight
And I fall
One more chance
To save my life
From it all

I'm holding on

I'm holding on
My darkest hour
Has just begun

One more chance
To take to take my flight
And I fall
One more chance
To save my life
From it all

My darkest hour
Darkest hour
Has begun

“Eyes of a Fallen Angel”

You came along
And couldn't stop me from falling
If you bore the cross
Then I wore the sign of everlasting
And drew the line

Call it a crime
It's just the sands of time
That passes
You chose to run

From the silent rage
Of fascists

I see the beast is rising
If I could fly and look at the world
Through the eyes of a fallen angel
Don't turn your back and run away

You came across
It was the sign of your undoing
Fortunate son
The darkest hour ensuing
I see that beast is rising

If I could fly and look at the world
Through the eyes of a fallen angel
Don't turn your back and run away

Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh

Fly and look at the world
Through the eyes of a fallen angel
Don't turn your back and run away

So it goes
So it goes
So it goes

“The King is Dead”

The dawn of a new day
A new horizon
The king that has reigned
Lies still and silent
Darkened skies above
A city fallen
Lost in a time of dread
Over and over again

The sky was black
And the rivers bled
The walls came falling down
The king is dead
The king is dead
The king is dead

The tyrant takes the crown
Evil doings
Sands of time that pass
Nightmare ensuing
Heir to the throne has fled
Chaos ruling
Sign of the beast became
Their undoing

The sky was black
And the rivers bled
The walls came falling down
The king is dead

Under the Southern Cross
Townsmen brooding
A time of unrest beset
On nights enduring
Darkest eyes that bled
Mass destruction
Over hills they came
To do it all over again

The sky was black
And the rivers bled

The walls came falling down
The king is dead
The king is dead
The king is dead

The time is now
No matter how
Find the strength
And turn it all around
Take hold and believe
Of what might seem Insanity
Lost inside a dream

“Swimming In Mortality”

Just like a rocket spinning
Out of control
I'm drifting
Much further from the course
Once set before

I must be
I'm dreaming
Because the walls are bleeding
And they confine me
Taller than before

Ahhhhh

The truth of consequence
May be the only thing in life
I'll travel to the moon
And meet you on the other side

I'm swimming
I'm swimming
I'm swimming
In mortality

Conception
Misleading
The world is conceding
Ambitions fading more and more

The truth of consequence
May be the only thing in life
I'll travel to the moon
And meet you on the other side

The truth of consequence
The truth of consequence
May be the only thing in life
I'll travel to the moon
I'll travel to the moon
And meet you on the other side

I'm swimming
I'm swimming
I'm swimming
In mortality

I'm swimming
I'm swimming
I'm swimming
In mortality

"Time Will Tell"

Traveling down this lonely road
The winter ice is black and cold
You lift me up then pull me down
A seasoned fool, a coward's scowl

It's in the air I breathe
It's in the words I weave
Only time will tell

Confusion masks the maker's smile
A weathered fool
A shattered child
Soft and gentle, we return
A hardened gaze and souls that burn

It's in the air I breathe
It's in the words I weave
Only time will tell
I don't know
What I did wrong
Time will tell

I just can't explain it

Time will tell
I just can't explain it
Time will tell

It's in the air I breathe
It's in the words I weave
Only time will tell
I don't know
What I did wrong
Time will tell

“The Unwinnable War”

Ohhhhh

Oh oh

Woke up to face the day
The sky was black
Too many signs that point to
No way back
What we came to find
Was not ours to bear
Separate worlds in which we walk
Yet this dream, we share

Ohhhhh

Oh oh

Wide awake and right before my eyes
A freedom lost and rage on my inside

We have lost all direction
The future's grim and folding fast
We want peace and perpetual war

Lost in lucid dream in disguise
Froze in time to watch all our demise

We have lost all direction
The future's grim and folding fast
We want peace and perpetual war

We won't fight it forever
Shoot
Kill
Run
Hide in terror
We won't fight the unwinnable war

Sound asleep
Lost inside a dream
Reality may not be as it seems

We have lost all direction

The future's grim and folding fast
We want peace and perpetual war

We won't fight it forever

Shoot

Kill

Hide in terror

We won't fight the unwinnable war

Ohhhhh

Oh oh
